Most of us have to process very large data sets to get answers. SAS makes it easy to have the computer do most of the work for us but it still takes a lot of time. Since we don't want to report the detail records, only summarized information, let's look at how we can summarize the data first and then do the analysis. These techniques will work on any computing platform.

The author may be contacted at:

Links Analytical, Inc.
3545-1 St Johns Bluff Rd, Suite 300
Jacksonville, FL 32224
ron.coleman@nationsbank.com
(904)987-3750